PAST RAMBLES

Mid-Week Ramblings

Wednesday 26th September Woodborough

Who would believe such delightful countryside existed just a few miles from Nottingham City Centre - this photograph taken by Pam B says it all. 14 Mid-Weekers congregated at the Nags Head on this late summer's day for a gentle ramble through back gardens, a football field and then into this big sky open country. Hardly needed the short cut but taken by some anyway to enjoy refreshment at the pub where reserved seating for lunch was available - think of everything do our leaders, in this case Peter S to whom many thanks were bestowed. Stable Talk

"Eh Teacup. "Que?" "Why they give you such silly name? " "Not as esilly as yours, Leonardo, you think you paint Mona Lisa eh?" "You have good rramble, Jack of Diamonds?" "Si, is good outing, and I am in the money." "How so?" "I am bet Fortune 50p that I can escape from the one they call Eddie. Now I buy bag of alpaca food and eat food AND bag." "Yes, bag is tastiest bit, and they nevr let us eat it." "You right there Jack, they all now in cafe stuffing themselves, and all we get is grrass" "Yes, and we got two more stomachs than them. But why we all talking in absurd Spanish accents?" "Is for tourists, they all think we born in Peru." George Z

All Animals Safely Back in the Barn, Grazing

A good time was had by all on the alpaca ramble. There was no kicking or biting. (Just as well, as alpaca wool gets stuck between your teeth.) Many thanks to our leader Robbo, the management at Scamhazel Farm, and not forgetting: Defender of the Faith, Jamiroquai, Jack of Diamonds, Kanuka, Leonardo, Rambler, Teacup, Tailwind, Fortune, Zeus, Sergeant and Norman.

Many thanks George from all of us for arranging such an unusual and enjoyable day. Eddie G.

Wednesday 24th October Stanton-on-the-Wolds

Again who would believe such pleasant countryside existed just a few miles away from the City Centre, good views too with the bonus of a sunny day at the right hiking temperature as we (48 soles) circumnavigated the SOTW Golf Course, where the golfers had right of way when the ramble ventured on to the actual course. The walk was led by Barbara and Rene to whom we give our thanks. A varied enjoyable lunch followed partaken in the Club House lounge where we passed the Club's dress code as Eddie was not wearing his habitual shorts!

Availability of the Committee Meeting Minutes

It has been decided by the committee that a copy of the latest committee meeting minutes can be made available to any club member on request once the committee has ratified them. Jane R

OBITUARIES

It has come to our notice that two very old past members of the club have died:

IRIS CLARK & VERA KIRK

We have very little information on Iris Clark, Doreen M has kindly written a brief note for Vera: Sadly Vera Kirk died at the beginning of October aged 102. Vera and her husband Leslie joined the HF Rambling Club in the mid-1960s and supported most coach rambles over many years. Vera, a forthright Yorkshire woman, led very many rambles for the club over many years. Despite the rain, I clearly remember walking along the top of High Street during a weekend organised and led by her in the Lake District. Another memorable walk she led was a tough 16 miles when others were doing the 'Three Peaks'. She also walked with the Rambling Club in Loughborough and remained an active walker into her 90s, as well as keeping her mind active by doing the Telegraph crossword puzzle. Perhaps if we all keep as fit and active as these old ladies we will also live to a ripe old age!! We offer our condolences to their family and friends. Jane R (General Secretary)

Committee Meeting

The next committee meeting is on Thursday 13th December. If any member wishes to raise a topic for discussion, please let any committee member know.
